Enduring memory can become an everlasting dream.

Whatever changes human striving may bring about, they always begin with the hope of a better life.

Each object has its true owner... There's no point in fighting for it. If we don't have the good fortune of truly owning it, then we will lose it again quickly, though we may call it our own for a short time.

Even the most beautiful peony cannot blossom forever.

Time and again, life places us in situations that appear utterly meaningless, and it does not even matter if they are good or bad happenstances.

The word for 'fate' literally means 'people obey the creator of nature'!

Fate is the seed we sowed in our previous life. Whatever happens is only the harvest of that seed.

And can you imagine what the most important thing in life is?

The most important thing in my life is you!

The farthest is the nearest. You can't touch it, but it comes to you when you look for it.

You mustn't think that the path ends here. This is just the beginning!

The greatest lies hidden within the minutest and the visible within the invisible.

There is often more than one way to look at things,... and many times something good is the cause of something bad – and vice versa.

She closed her eyes and surrendered to his warmth. Every fiber of her being basked in pleasure of the moment, and she knew that this feeling would forever remain a burning memory.

When the lotus plant buds, it holds many charms, but it is just as beautiful when it unveils its blossom or scatters its seeds.

In a voice that spoke from a heart hidden many years.

Let's fight back the tears of sorrow and celebrate that we're alive!
